

EDUC90009 Multimedia and the Web for Education

Credit Points:	25
Level:	9 (Graduate/Postgraduate)
Dates & Locations:	This subject is not offered in 2012. Parkville campus and online delivery mode
Time Commitment:	Contact Hours: Total workload of 240 hours of which 36 hours will be in the form of workshops and seminars Total Time Commitment: Not available
Prerequisites:	None
Corequisites:	None
Recommended Background Knowledge:	None
Non Allowed Subjects:	None
Core Participation Requirements:	Attendance at all classes (tutorial/seminars/practical classes/lectures/labs) is obligatory. Failure to attend 80% of classes will normally result in failure in the subject.
Contact:	Education Student Centre
Subject Overview:	The subject focuses on the role of multimedia and the web for human communication and learning in educational contexts. The subject is suitable for all educators interested in combining practical activities with learning about associated techniques and theories. Among the topics that could be included in the subject are: applications of multimedia in educational contexts; technology used in education for telecommunication; resources, retrieval and publishing on the Web; issues of access, equity and ethics related to the use of multimedia and communications technology.
Objectives:	Information not available
Assessment:	Assignments equivalent to 8,000 words (100 per cent). One assignment will involve the collaborative development of a multimedia and/or web teaching resource.
Prescribed Texts:	None
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees
Links to further information:	www.education.unimelb.edu.au
Related Course(s):	Postgraduate Certificate in Education (Generalist)
Related Majors/Minors/Specialisations:	Education