Subject Overview:	This subject will focus on effective presentation and/or facilitation in actual teaching contexts within TAFEs and Private providers - specifically, lectures and teaching in small group settings. The diversity of teaching contexts is a feature of the subject with participants encouraged to consider their particular teaching setting and practice. Participants, in pairs, engage in reciprocal peer review of teaching, alternately taking on the roles of reviewer and reviewee. Participants also work with a workplace colleague who observes their teaching in order to offer feedback and constructive advice.
Objectives:	At the completion of the subject, participants should have developed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # an understanding of how to plan and prepare classes to enhance student learning; # an awareness of their own strengths and weaknesses as a presenter or facilitator; # knowledge of procedures and strategies that enhance effectiveness in various teaching contexts; # an appreciation of the support and assistance available from colleagues; # skills in presenting, explaining, demonstrating, guiding and supporting student learning in higher education programs.
Assessment:	There will be four pieces of assessment with a total of 5,000 words, or equivalent. Completion of a cycle of reciprocal peer review of teaching with a colleague from within the subject; end of semester, 25 per cent Completion of a cycle of peer review of teaching with a workplace colleague; end of semester, 25 per cent A teaching portfolio including class plans and notes from the peer review sessions (1000 words); end of semester, 25 per cent A reflective essay of 1,500 words; end of semester, 25 per cent
