Subject Overview:	European modernism refers to a wide range of experimental and avant-garde trends in literature and arts at the end of the 19th and early 20th century and has proven a major influence on current (Western) literature, film and the arts. This course introduces students to key themes of modernist literature, theatre, and film in Europe. The course familiarizes students with key writers and thinkers of this period and will address the ways in which they provoked their readers/viewers through new and complex forms and styles. Major themes comprise the crisis of representation, the representation of cosmopolitanism and urban cultural dislocation, consciousness and memory, and sexuality. (Students undertaking this subject will be expected to regularly access an internet-enabled computer.)
Objectives:	.
Assessment:	A team project consisting of a 500 word written assignment and 10 minute oral presentation 25% (due during semester period; equivalent to 1,000 words), a mid-semester written assignment (equivalent to 1,000 words) 25%, and final essay (2,000 words due at the end of semester) 50%. This subject has the following hurdle requirements: * Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. * All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
