Subject Overview:	This subject builds upon the linguistic abilities developed in Intermediate French. It aims at consolidating and expanding the four major language skills (listening, speaking, reading, writing) by intensive practical training. This is achieved through a variety of activities such as: group discussions, formal study of grammar, discourse forms and vocabulary, creative and factual writing, reading, listening to and watching authentic recorded documents. The materials used will broaden students' knowledge of French and Francophone high and popular cultures.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Have improved their receptive skills - listening and reading comprehension - in French. # Have improved their productive skills, being able to communicate effectively, fluently and reasonably accurately in spoken and written French. # Have expanded their vocabulary and developed their understanding of grammatical and discourse structures. # Increased their knowledge of French society and culture (past and present).
Assessment:	Written work totaling 2000 words 60% (due during semester), a 10-minute oral test 20% (at end of semester) and a listening comprehension test 20% (due during semester). This subject has the following hurdle requirements: Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day and in-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
