

INTS90007 Globalisation and China

Credit Points:	12.50
Level:	9 (Graduate/Postgraduate)
Dates & Locations:	2012, Parkville This subject commences in the following study period/s: Semester 2, Parkville - Taught on campus.
Time Commitment:	Contact Hours: A 2-hour seminar per week Total Time Commitment: 24 contact hours. Estimated total time commitment (including non-contact time) 120 hours.
Prerequisites:	Admission to the Masters of International Relations or MA in Asian Societies or Executive Master of Arts.
Corequisites:	None.
Recommended Background Knowledge:	None.
Non Allowed Subjects:	None.
Core Participation Requirements:	For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/
Coordinator:	Dr Jia Gao, Dr Lewis Mayo
Contact:	Dr Sow Keat Tok (sowkeat.tok@unimelb.edu.au (mailto:sowkeat.tok@unimelb.edu.au))
Subject Overview:	This subject looks at the relationship between China and economic, social, political and cultural globalisation. The course will cover key issues related to China's interconnectedness with the rest of the world in late modern and contemporary history: the transfer of ideas, movement of people, trade, participation in regional and global institutions etc. The course will survey the scholarly literature on globalisation and China from a range of disciplinary perspectives, and will also involve a major original research project.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Developing an understanding of China's economic, social, political and cultural interactions with the rest of the world. # Developing a critical understanding of contemporary key issues and challenges associated with the process of globalisation and China. # Demonstrate research skills through competent use of the library and other information sources
Assessment:	1,000-word essay research outline 20% (due mid-semester). 4,000-word research-based essay 80% (due at the end of the semester).
Prescribed Texts:	Materials supplied by the Asia Institute.
Recommended Texts:	None.
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees

Generic Skills:	# Show critical thinking and analysis through recommended reading, essay writing and classroom discussion # Demonstrate understanding of social, ethical and cultural contexts of knowledge
Notes:	None.
Related Course(s):	Master of International Relations Master of Journalism
Related Majors/Minors/ Specialisations:	150 point program - full time over 18 months 200 point program - full time over 18 months 200 point program - full time over 24 months Asian Studies Asian Studies