Subject Overview:	This subject provides a comprehensive introduction to contemporary Italian. Language classes will gradually familiarise the students with the structures, rules and skills necessary to communicate in Italian. Continuous assessment (through tests, exercises and other activities) is fundamental to evaluating the students' progress in the acquisition of Italian. By the end of the semester, students should have developed oral and written competency in Italian and acquired the skills necessary to read and discuss simple literary texts.
Objectives:	Students who complete this subject will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # develop their understanding of the Italian language # be able to comprehend a range of simple texts, written and spoken, in Italian # have the capacity to communicate in Italian in a range of everyday transactional situations # produce short compositions in Italian, incorporating their linguistic knowledge of the language # appreciate certain aspects of contemporary Italian culture and society
Assessment:	Three take home exercises (equivalent 400 words each) in weeks 5, 7 and 9 [30%] Test (45 minutes) mid semester [20%] Listening comprehension test in week 11 [10%] Final examination (1.5 hours) during the examination period [40%] This subject has the following hurdle requirements: Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day and in-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
