Subject Overview:	This subject is designed for students who have completed Japanese 6 or those who have similar experience and can recognise around 600 kanji characters. This subject will enhance students' academic literacy skills to conduct in-depth research related to Japan. Students will establish advanced Japanese literacy and background knowledge in order to engage in international and political issues surrounding Japan. Students will develop understanding of newspaper genres through reading, writing, and discussing issues in the following key themes in modern Japanese society (themes may change without prior notice): Tradition and modernization, cutting-edge technology, Japan's changing images and identities, Japanese corporate ethics and scandals. Students will be engaged in a small scale research project on one of the chosen topics by further investigating the issue and by writing an opinion piece and presenting it to the class. Through the research project they will develop their research skills and will equip themselves with critical literacy by analysing issues in question from various perspectives and participating in small group discussions.
Objectives:	On completion of this subject students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop sensitivity to implied meanings from given texts, and be able to relate them with a certain choice of words, sentence structure and cohesive discourse devices.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Comprehend on-line Japanese newspaper articles quickly with the aid of on-line learning resources. • Write a summary of a newspaper report with understanding of this genre • Write a research paper on a topic related to Japan and present the findings orally • Express their views on a number of issues in both writing and speaking. • Identify and manipulate language and discourse structures according to the context of communication • Develop knowledge and understanding of Japanese traditional and emerging new values • Engage in conversations on some international issues with understanding of varied perspectives
Assessment:	Written work in Japanese, 600 words (due throughout semester) 15%, oral assessment, 400 words (due mid-semester) 10%, cultural discovery project, 600 words (due towards the end of semester) 15%, critical discussion, 400 words (due end of semester) 10% and a 2-hour written examination (during examination period) 50%.
