Entry Requirements:	1. The Selection Committee will evaluate the applicant's ability to pursue the course successfully using the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• an undergraduate degree in any discipline; and</li> <li>• an audition.</li> </ul>

	2. The Selection Committee may conduct interviews and tests and may call for referee reports or employer references to elucidate any of the matters referred to above.
Core Participation Requirements:	All students of music must possess intellectual, ethical, physical and emotional capabilities required to participate in the full curriculum and to achieve the levels of competence required by the Melbourne Conservatorium of Music. a) Musical skills, including well developed vocal proficiency, musical literacy, and aural discrimination skills; b) Cognitive skills, including the ability to comprehend complex music information and material independently; c) Communication skills, including the ability to write and speak clearly and effectively. Communication with fellow students, academic and professional staff, and the wider public about their knowledge and application of music performance is essential. Students must possess the physical and emotional health required for full use of their intellectual abilities, the exercise of good judgment and the prompt completion of all responsibilities required by the course. All students need to be aware of their personal limitations and when and where to seek professional advice or supervision. Students must be able to tolerate physically taxing musical practice and to function effectively under stress and isolation in musical preparation. They must also be able to function effectively as part of a musical ensemble, to adapt to changing environments and to display flexibility. d) Behavioural and Social Attributes, so as to enable students to participate in a complex learning environment. Students are required to take responsibility for their own participation and learning. They also contribute to the learning of other students in collaborative learning environments, demonstrating interpersonal skills and an understanding of the needs of other students. Assessment may include the outcomes of tasks completed in collaboration with other students. The Melbourne Conservatorium of Music welcomes applications from students with disabilities. It is University policy to make reasonable adjustments so as to enable a student's participation in the Melbourne Conservatorium of Music's programs. Students who have a disability which may prevent them from participating in tasks involving these inherent academic requirements are encouraged to contact the Disability Liaison Unit: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/. Adjustments can be provided to minimise the impact of a disability; however, students will need to participate in the course in an independent manner.
Further Study:	After successful completion of the degree with appropriate research training subjects, students will be eligible to apply for a research Masters degree.
