Subject Overview:	The Gamelan Ensemble (Indonesian orchestra) rehearses on the magnificent bronze slendro-pelog gamelan from central Java, Indonesia in the School of Music. Students learn to play all the instruments of the gamelan—gongs, drums, metal xylophones and tuned pots. Pieces learned include traditional and newly composed works for gamelan. Students work to a performance including a short excerpt from a shadow puppet play.
Objectives:	On completion of this subject students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # demonstrate their ability to work cooperatively as a member of the gamelan # demonstrate an ability to perform to a high standard on a number of instruments of the gamelan # demonstrate an understanding of the social context of gamelan music in Indonesian life # show technical development as ensemble musicians # perform selected repertoire to concert standard # demonstrate a capacity to think critically and independently in matters of corporate style, sonority, balance, ensemble, phrasing, blending and musical gesture. # demonstrate an awareness of standards of professional performance –practice in this genre of music
Assessment:	Attendance and participation (50%); a 10-minute practical examination at the end of the semester (25%); attendance and submission of a concert report of three appropriate concerts (500 words each, due weeks 4, 8 and 12) (25%). Less than 80% attendance will result in a fail. All assessment components must be passed in order to pass the subject, including the timely, satisfactory completion of all three concert reports.
