Subject Overview:	Students will develop a thorough technical background to cope with all stylistic demands; establish a sizeable concert repertory covering all styles. Includes advanced study of the established concerto repertory and all related aspects of music performance. The study should include a concerto or a major ensemble work comprising at least three players. Vocal students may prepare an excerpt of at least 10 minutes duration from opera or oratorio or a major ensemble work for voice and at least three additional players.
Objectives:	On completion of the subject, students should be able to: # perform the soloist part with assured musical fluency; # maintain convincing musical interaction with supporting players; # sustain a musically convincing view of the soloist's contribution; and # communicate an individual sense of artistry through the soloist's role.
Assessment:	An end-of-semester concerto performance of an approved work (100%). Students must participate as a performer (as determined by the coordinator) in concert class, performance class and instrument class as arranged in order to complete the subject.
