Course Overview:	The Doctor of Education is an advanced professional doctorate for experienced professionals with educational responsibilities. Carefully designed to parallel their regular work, the course enables experienced educators to carry out advanced academic and professional study which has direct relevance to their professional role. It is undertaken over three years on a full-time basis or six years on a part-time basis.
Objectives:	Students who have completed the Doctor of Education should have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># advanced their knowledge in areas of special significance to their profession;</li> <li># achieved an advanced level of education and professional development in respect to the operation, design and development of Victorian, Australian and other systems of education;</li> <li># been involved effectively in a program of study and research directly related to their professional settings and educational responsibilities;</li> <li># have participated in high level and systematic analysis of practical problems related to education in their profession through the application of appropriate discipline analysis and research methodology in a manner which has strong potential for changing professional practice;</li> <li># made a contribution to the wider theoretical and/or professional debates in the relevant field of study.</li> </ul>
Course Structure &amp; Available Subjects:	The first stage of the program consists of coursework and preparatory studies for the thesis. Full time students complete this stage in year 1, part time students in years 1 and 2. During this period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Students complete 100 points of coursework: four compulsory subjects and 50 points of electives.</li> <li># Students must undertake the compulsory subjects in such an order that EDUC90320 Doctoral Research Seminar and EDUC90319 DEd Thesis Proposal are completed in the semester immediately prior to the commencement of the thesis (i.e. semester 2 of full-time enrolment or semester 4 of part-time enrolment).</li> <li># All students must gain at least an H2A average in the coursework component, including at least an H2A result in EDUC90319 DEd Thesis Proposal, to proceed to the thesis. Students who are not permitted to proceed to thesis but who have completed 100 points of coursework may take out a Master of Education degree if they wish, since they will have met the requirements of the 100-points coursework Masters.</li> </ul> The second stage of the program consists of a 55,000 word thesis. Full time students complete this stage in years 2 and 3, part time students over years 3 - 6.

Furthermore:

- # Full time students are expected to present a report on their research at the beginning of semester two in the second year of their studies. Part time students will be required to produce this report at the beginning of the fourth year of their studies.
- # The report will normally be at least 4,000 words and present a detailed account of the implementation so far of the research proposal. The report will be considered by a panel consisting of at least three staff members. Students must also make a presentation speaking to the report, which, in normal circumstances, will be open to other members of the Graduate School, including other research students. If the panel deems the report unsatisfactory, they may: refer the student to the Unsatisfactory Progress Committee immediately; or permit the student up to three months to revise the report. If the report remains unsatisfactory, the student will be referred to the Unsatisfactory Progress Committee.
- # Students must also publicly present a research paper in the last six months of their candidature.
