Subject Overview:	This subject is designed for students who have completed Latin 1, Latin 2 (or Intensive Beginners Latin) and Latin 3. Students read an extensive extract (usually a book) from a Latin epic poem, such as Virgil's Aeneid, Ovid's Metamorphoses or Lucan's Bellum Civile. In addition, work is undertaken on grammar and syntax to revise, consolidate and extend students' knowledge of the language. Students will explore the themes and content of epic, such as warfare, empire, heroic culture, ethnic identity and masculinity, and consider how the mythic past is used to reflect upon the author's own time. On completion of the subject students should develop a good knowledge of a key Roman text and an enhanced understanding of Roman literary culture. Students who complete this subject may progress to Latin 5.

Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · be familiar with the style of Roman epic. · understand the cultural and production contexts of the text. · have consolidated their knowledge of grammar and syntax and extended their vocabulary. · be able to critically analyse the styles and themes of Latin epic.
Assessment:	Weekly tutorial exercises, equivalent to 750 words 25% (due each week throughout the semester), textual analysis, equivalent to 500 words 10% (due in week 8 of semester), an assessment test equivalent to 1000 words 30% (due at the end of semester) and a 1750-word essay 35% (due in the examination period). This subject has a minimum hurdle requirement of 75% tutorial attendance. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day. After 5 working days late assessment will not be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
