Subject Overview:	This subject builds on the concepts introduced in Learning Area Humanities 1. The major focus of this subject is to develop further teacher candidates understanding of the nature and purposes of humanities education in years 7 to 12. Teacher candidates will continue to explore the Australian Curriculum/AusVELS. They investigate the pedagogies associated with the disciplines of humanities in the secondary school, exploring ways to foster conceptual understandings and inquiry skills. This includes consideration of literacy and numeracy strategies appropriate to the humanities (interpreting source material in history, analysing data in geography). The focus of the subject is on learning and teaching that is research led and uses disciplinary and interdisciplinary approaches to curriculum design and implementation. Through research and reflection teacher candidates will explore and critique recent developments in humanities education and their impact upon curriculum design and teaching approaches.
Objectives:	On the completion of this subject, students will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Be highly skilled humanities teachers who demonstrate the professional capabilities to meet the individual needs of learners using interventionist practice; # Demonstrate an understanding of ways in which theory and research inform practice; # Demonstrate strong disciplinary and pedagogical content knowledge; # Utilise diverse pedagogical strategies to provide rich and creative learning environments that empower learners. The subject covers a range of the National Professional Standards for Teachers (for Graduate Teachers). In particular, the subject will contribute to students attaining the following standards:

	2.1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the concepts, substance and structure of the content and teaching strategies of the teaching area; 2.2 Organise content into an effective learning and teaching sequence; 2.3 Use curriculum, assessment and reporting knowledge to design learning sequences and lesson plans; 3.2 Plan lesson sequences using knowledge of student learning, content and effective teaching strategies; 3.3 Use a range of teaching strategies.
