Subject Overview:	Following on from 'Major Script Project' the previous semester, students undertake to write subsequent drafts of their script. Students are expected to submit as a minimum a completed second draft long form script; (most likely a feature film script) plus accompanying short documents, or television script(s) of equivalent length plus a 'Bible'. Students attend regular small group script tutorials where work in progress will be discussed/presented and feedback given by tutor and peers. Students also undertake complimentary craft and industry classes during the semester. Students may, on their own initiative, organise script readings and/or actor workshops for script development and feedback purposes.
Objectives:	This subject will enable students to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • complete a second draft (minimum) long form script to a professional standard; • gain higher level understanding of key elements of the craft of screenwriting; • further develop script analysis and feedback skills; • gain insight into the process of drafting and redrafting long form scripts.
Assessment:	Second Draft major script (15-18,000 words) (90%)Script Tutorial Participation (10%)
