Subject Overview:	The core tax subject, Foundations of Tax Law, examines the fundamentals of taxation, with a focus on Australia's most important tax: the income tax. It engages with the tax law that is most relevant to legal and tax practice for individuals and businesses. This subject equips students to interpret statutory tax rules and apply judicial case law approaches, and to understand the policy and implications of tax reform in this fast-changing and challenging area of law. Foundations of Tax is taught by Professor Miranda Stewart, the Director of Studies for the tax program, who has significant experience and knowledge of tax law and practice both in Australia and internationally. Foundations of Tax Law is a required subject for international tax students and is recommended for all students who have had little previous study or experience in tax law. Principal topics will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Taxation in Australia's federal system, overview of federal and state taxes, constitutional issues, how tax laws are made, sources of tax law, tax rates and tax reform</li> <li># Income tax policy and the meaning of income</li> <li># Income tax law, including calculation of taxable income; definition of income from services, property and business, capital gains, allowable deductions and treatment of business and investment assets</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Overview of income tax of business and investment entities</li> <li># Tax avoidance and evasion, and the general anti-avoidance rule.</li> </ul>
Objectives:	A student who has successfully completed this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Have a solid knowledge of the core tax law principles in the Australian tax system, with a focus on Australia's most important tax – the federal income tax</li> <li># Have a good understanding of the administration of Australia's tax system, including how a taxpayer engages in the income tax assessment, collection, rulings and appeals process</li> <li># Have a good understanding of how tax laws are made, and principles of tax policy</li> <li># Have the ability to locate tax law sources and research a tax law issue.</li> </ul>
