Subject Overview:	This subject is a study of classic texts and major themes in the 20th century philosophical traditions of phenomenology and existentialism. The lectures will cover the central figures of Husserl, Heidegger, Sartre and Merleau-Ponty, with students focusing on two of these authors for assessment purposes. Themes to be discussed include the aims and methods of phenomenology, consciousness and perception, being-in-the-world, our relation to others, freedom and embodiment. On completion of the subject students should be able to engage in detailed exegesis of philosophical texts and to examine critically the philosophical arguments and views they contain.
Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># have a general knowledge of the twentieth century phenomenological and existentialist traditions.</li> <li># have a detailed knowledge of at least two phenomenological texts.</li> <li># understand the critical discussion by commentators on those texts.</li> </ul>
Assessment:	A written assignment of 2000 words 50% (due mid-semester), a 2-hour closed-book written examination 50% (held at the end of semester). This subject has a minimum hurdle requirement of 75% tutorial attendance. Regular participation in tutorials is required. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day. After 5 working days late assessment will not be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts:	Set readings for this subject will be made available via the LMS.
