Subject Overview:	This subject is delivered via 4 modules. - Module One: Theatre Making; Module Two: Equipment Operation; Module Three: Devised Project; Module Four: Studio Based Practice Module One: This module will introduce to the student the concept of dramaturgy and analysis of source material (choreography, text) and in relation to the performance outcome. Students will learn about the various forms and styles that have been popular in theatre. Areas covered will include but not be limited to Realism, Naturalism, Symbolism, Expressionism, Epic Theatre, Constructivism, Existentialism, and Absurdism. This module will provide students with both an understanding of the theatre making process and a historical context of the style, genres and trends that have influenced the staging of live performances. This module will support the devised work that students undertake in module three. Module Two: Students will be instructed in the techniques required to safely and effectively operate basic hand and power tools pertinent to the role of theatre technical students. Module Three: This module will provide students with an opportunity to collaborate in the realising of a performance piece. The first year cohort will be divided into groups of approximately 4-6 people and provided with a stimulus. Each group will work in a collegial and collaborative manner to devise a response to the stimulus with an outcome that can that will be viewed by an audience of their peers. Module Four: The students will be assigned to a practical studio based project in a designated minor role to assist with the development, application and/or design of a practical element that relates to their major, within the context of a studio-based project. For example; as a Lighting operator on a theatre or dance project.
Objectives:	Module One:
