Subject Overview:	Travelling studios are working laboratories for design thought and production and involve the exploration of complex, real-life issues. They expose students to unfamiliar cultures, places and people, and stimulate their ability to think creatively and solve problems. These studios aims to bring together students from architecture, urban design, landscape and planning streams and encourage an interdisciplinary focus. Pre-trip briefings or seminars will precede the travel component of the studio. The studio will incur travel costs, in addition to tuition fees. Faculty subsidies will, however, be available. For specific information about this studio: http://edsc.unimelb.edu.au/travelling-studios (http://edsc.unimelb.edu.au/travelling-studios)
Learning Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # To provide students with an experience in international collaboration. # To encourage students to identify and engage critically with specific cultural practices, industrial contexts and socio-technical traditions.
