Subject Overview:	This subject introduces a wide range of anthropological interests in the human body from a comparative ethnographic perspective. It considers topics such as body image and eating disorders, body arts and practices, body modifications and decorations, sporting bodies, consciousness and the body/mind continuum, commodified bodies, disabled bodies and body healing. We will investigate how the human body is individually and culturally constructed and socially experienced through a critical examination of a range of ethnographic and theoretical literature, as well as through exploratory field research.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who successfully complete this subject will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Become sensitive to a range of beliefs, values and knowledge on the body and how these influence thought and behaviour # Appreciate and be able to articulate and critically assess a range of theoretical debates on the body.
Assessment:	A 1500 word report (40%) due during the semester, and a 2500 word essay (60%) due during the examination period. Hurdle Requirement: This subject has a minimum hurdle requirement of 75% tutorial attendance. Regular participation in tutorials is required. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
