Subject Overview:	This subject is designed for students who have completed Ancient Greek 1 & 2, or who have some previous knowledge of Ancient Greek (VCE or equivalent); and who have preferably completed Ancient Greek 3. Students translate and discuss the interpretation of a selected work of a Greek poetic genre (e.g., Homeric epic or drama). In tutorials, further work is undertaken on grammar and syntax, revising and consolidating knowledge acquired in Ancient Greek 3. Students will also undertake work in Ancient Greek literary and textual criticism. On completion of this subject, students should have consolidated their skills in working with Ancient Greek texts and have discovered some of the many important contributions which reading the original texts can make to understanding the ancient world. Students who complete this subject and Ancient Greek 3 may progress to Ancient Greek 5.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: # have read an Ancient Greek text in the original,

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have consolidated their knowledge of grammar and syntax, and extended their vocabulary (including the Homeric dialect), # be able to analyse critically the styles and themes of Ancient Greek epic poetry.
Assessment:	Weekly translations tests, equivalent to 500 words 5% (held each week throughout the semester), weekly tutorial exercises, equivalent to 1000 words 30% (due each week throughout the semester), a textural analysis, equivalent to 500 words 10% (due week 8 of the semester), a 1-hour assessment test equivalent to 1000 words 25% (held in the middle of the semester) and a 1-hour examination, equivalent to 1000 words 30% (held during the examination period). Hurdle requirements: In order to be eligible for final assessment students must attend 75% of tutorials (9 out of 12) and complete the assessment test and examination. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day; after five working days late assessment will not be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts:	A subject reader will be available at the commencement of semester.
