Subject Overview:	The subject builds upon the prerequisite subject. Students focus on their chosen field of specialisation, allowing a more detailed study of the history and manufacture of traditional and modern materials, their properties and behavior, and more complex chemical and physical deterioration processes. Areas of specialisation will include: Objects - a wide variety of organic, inorganic and composite artifacts. Paper - papers, traditional printing, photographic and digital processes, pigments, binders and book binding technologies. Easel paintings - easel painting supports, grounds, pigments, binders and coatings. During the pre-teaching period students are expected to complete the course readings, review the lectures and any other course preparation as outlined on the LMS. The LMS will become available at the commencement of the pre-teaching dates.
Learning Outcomes:	Upon completion of this subject students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # be able to identify and characterise artefacts within their specialisation, and will be able to locate and assess them in their cultural and technological context.

	# have an advanced understanding of the chemical and physical behavior of artefacts within their specialisation including complex mechanisms of deterioration.
Assessment:	A tutorial presentation 500 words, 20%, a written report 1500 words, 30% and a written essay 3000 words, 50% will be due over the assessment period from 3 February - 10 March 2014. Hurdle requirement: students must attend a minimum of 75% of workshops/tutorials in order to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 2% per day; after five days, no late assessment will be accepted. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts:	A subject reader will be available in the pre-teaching period. Additional texts may be recommended.
