Subject Overview:	The study of Contemporary and Ballet Technique establishes the basis for fundamentally aware and intelligent dance artists. Four classes a week in both Ballet and Contemporary will form this subject. Exploration of the artistry of the technique is provided through different philosophies on dance to enhance and complement the contemporary and ballet techniques across the semester. Classes will focus on developing technical expertise with an emphasis on coordination, momentum, economy of action, precision of mechanics, anatomical function and alignment, utilising visualisation whilst also valuing the individual's inbuilt knowledge of the body to move. This subject aims to integrate the conceptual language and practices of the subject, Integrated Body Mind Practices, through coaching and application in technique classes.
