Subject Overview:	This subject continues the consolidation of the work practice and the preparation of a resolved body of work for final assessment and to prepare work for inclusion in the Graduate Exhibition and entry to the Honours Year. The professional practice component continues to prepare students with the necessary skills and knowledge to practice as professional artists.
Learning Outcomes:	# Emphasis is placed on the focused development of conceptual and research skills, skills in critically engaging with art as a profession, and enhancing the student's individual contribution to their chosen discipline. # Students should have the requisite understanding, knowledge and skills to maintain an independent artistic practice upon leaving the course.
Assessment:	Assessment is based on a substantial folio of work demonstrating the range of a student's activities during the semester, including any group of finished works, support work, drawings, journals/sketchbooks etc and other works/material in any media the student chooses to submit (100%). For more detailed assessment information refer to your program's subject handouts. Ongoing feedback is provided to students via individual and group tutorials. The mid-semester review takes into account the student's progress against the following criteria: Course engagement Work development Studio use Formal feedback is given to students who are deemed to be at risk. Academic staff write progress reports during the semester that students sight and sign. A single mark is assigned at the end of the semester.
