Subject Overview:	This intensive three week study abroad subject will be taught in Touraine, in the heart of the Loire Valley, a region whose denizens have long been recognized as having the purest French accent. This course will focus on one of the most creative times of French history, albeit one of the most turbulent, the Renaissance. With a series of lectures, tutorials and detailed site visits, this subject will examine some of the most striking examples of French Renaissance architecture, including the famed "Chateaux de la Loire" built during the late 16th century, and learn about arts and history. This course will use an interdisciplinary approach (linguistic, history, art history, botany, gastronomy etc.) and will be taught in conjunction with specialists in art and literature from the French Ministry of Education.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who complete this course will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # enrich both their linguistic and cultural experience # have a rounded picture of a particular past social and cultural context which has left a profound impact upon European culture of the succeeding centuries up to our own
