Course Overview:	THIS COURSE WILL NOT BE ON OFFER FOR 2014. THE NEXT INTAKE WILL BE IN 2015. The Professional Certificate in Indigenous Research is an interdisciplinary coursework program consisting of one core subject - MULT90022: Indigenous Research. In this course, 'Indigenous research' includes not only research by Indigenous individuals, but also research on Indigenous topics. The course explores research and develops research skills from an Indigenous perspective. The course is taught in a mixed mode of seminars, case studies, and group activities, with an emphasis on collaborative learning. Students engage in a range of activities, including structured reflection, academic writing, and formal verbal presentations. Students' assessment tasks relate directly to their own research. Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students are awarded a Professional Certificate in Indigenous Research, which will give them 25 credit points towards the Graduate Certificate in Indigenous Research and Leadership.
Learning Outcomes:	To provide a cohort experience and supportive learning environment for students engaged in Indigenous research, with the opportunity to establish ongoing professional networks. To build research capacity within the cohort by means of providing accessible and culturally sensitive Indigenous research training. To enable RHD candidates to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # resolve research issues and bring this ability to the solving of research problems from an Indigenous perspective; # demonstrate an understanding of ethical issues and conduct in Indigenous research; # demonstrate a knowledge and appreciation of principles, practices and milestones in developing and completing their research projects; # communicate such understanding and skills effectively through oral and written research presentations.
Course Structure & Available Subjects:	The Professional Certificate in Indigenous Research (GC-IRPRO) is a single-subject 25-point award. At the completion of this compulsory subject students will be awarded a Professional Certificate in Indigenous Research, which will give them 25 credit points towards the Graduate Certificate in Indigenous Research and Leadership (GC-IRL).
