Subject Overview:	This subject aims to prepare students for more specialised studies in Japanese society and culture. The subject offers interdisciplinary views of the political, economic, religious and cultural ideologies which foster inequality between different social groups in Japan. Students should become aware of the heterogeneous aspects of Japanese society, as well as the public and private institutions that deal with these issues, such as ethnicity, caste and disability. The subject will also include an examination of the relevant institutions (such as the family registry system, employment protection laws and social welfare programs) which promote or attack prejudice against heterogeneous social groups.
Learning Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># be able to demonstrate an understanding of the heterogeneous aspects of Japanese society.</li> <li># understand the political, economic, religious and cultural ideologies which foster inequality between different social groups in Japan.</li> <li># demonstrate a familiarity with the English language writings on these issues.</li> <li># acquire skills to critically think and analyse through required reading, essay writing and tutorial discussion, and by determining the strength of an argument.</li> <li># be able to communicate knowledge intelligibly and economically through essay and examination writing, and tutorial discussion.</li> </ul>
Assessment:	Seminar participation (on going) 10%, a seminar presentation and reflexive essay (on going, 500 words) 20%, essay plan (mid semester. 1000 words) 20% and a final essay (beginning of exam period, 2500 words) 50%. Class attendance is required for this subject; if you do not attend a minimum of 75% of classes without an approved exemption you will not be eligible for a pass in this subject.
