Subject Overview:	This subject involves completion of an 80-100 hour work placement integrating academic learning, employability skills and attributes and an improved knowledge of organisations, workplace culture and career pathways. The placement is supplemented by pre- and post-placement classes, including a compulsory placement induction in Week 1 and compulsory pre-placement sessions in Weeks 2 & 3, designed to introduce workplace culture and strategies for developing, identifying and articulating employability skills and attributes and linking them to employer requirements. The placement should draw on specific discipline skills associated with the course of enrolment. Pre-placement seminars will also include career development and planning, self-assessment, reflexivity and professional skills.

	Students are responsible for identifying a suitable work placement, by Week 1 of semester, with support from Student Programs staff. In the semester prior to your placement you should attend Careers & Employment (C&E) employment preparation seminars and workshops and access other C&E resources to help you to identify potential host organisations (http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/careers/ (http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/careers/)). You will need to commence your approaches to organisations at least 4 weeks before the placement. More information is available in the Subject Guide. Placements must be approved by the Coordinator. If you have problems finding a placement you should contact the Course Coordinator. On completion of the subject, students will have completed and reported on a course-related project in a workplace. They will also have enhanced employability skills including communication, interpersonal, analytical and problem-solving, organisational and time-management, and an understanding of career planning and professional development.
Learning Outcomes:	On completion of this subject, students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify and articulate their knowledge and skills and apply them to relevant organisational contexts and work-settings; as well as linking them to specific professions and career pathways; • produce original work in an appropriate format which demonstrates analytical, research and problem-solving skills; • review and reflect on the process and output of a work project/placement to articulate their academic and career development learning from the experience; • understand the value of industry and professional networks and their importance to self reliance, lifelong learning and career progression.
Assessment:	1,500 word career case-study based on an information interview with an employee in your placement organisation, including a strategic career plan, 30%, due mid- semester; 2,000 word essay on the placement experience, 50%, due at the start of the examination period; Team-focussed activity - 20 minute group presentation on a work-related or discipline specific topic 10%; Individual academic poster on the group presentation topic 10%. Presentations and posters due in weeks 10, 11 & 12 classes; 80 hours of satisfactory work placement (hurdle); Seminar attendance – 100% (hurdle).
Prescribed Texts:	Readings and resources will be provided via the LMS.
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees
Generic Skills:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrated flexibility, adaptability, time management and organisational skills as a result of their participation in the workplace; • Ability to communicate effectively in a professional workplace and to work with and interact with a wide range of people inside and outside their host organisations, including working in teams; • Understanding of organisational culture and ethics, work practices, and the diversity of workplaces; • Demonstrate analytical, problem-solving research, and report-writing skills; • Ability to manage and plan work; • Capacity for initiative and enterprise; • Capacity for lifelong learning, self reliance, self-reflection and professional and career development.
