Subject Overview:	In 1968 the first rock major musical Hair caused a sensation and spawned a new genre. This subject will explore the music of significant contemporary rock musicals through a weekly 2-hour large ensemble singing class, using music from a handful of the genre's best examples, developing skills in safe voice usage and technique, basic music notation, harmonies, song structure and storytelling through song. A one-hour embedded lecture will consider major shows of contemporary music theatre, from mega-musicals like Les Miserables and The Lion King, to juke-box musicals like Jersey Boys and Hairspray and off-Broadway hits like Rent, In the Heights and Next to Normal. The subject will conclude with a short performance featuring a sample of the repertoire covered. No former singing or musical experience is necessary.
Learning Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Develop knowledge of music theatre repertoire and history # Develop practical knowledge of safe voice usage. # Develop collaborative learning skills # Develop respect for the values and principles of ensemble performance.
Assessment:	Continuous: Assessment will be based on the level of attainment in preparation of parts, individual and/or sectional practice and active participation in all rehearsals, classes and performances as directed, worth 30% Weekly on-line 5 question multiple choice test, drawn from lecture material, worth 30% Written: A research task: 1,500 words, due in week 12, worth 40% Less than 80% attendance will result in a fail. All assessment components must be passed in order to pass the subject. Formal: Participation in a final public performance is a hurdle requirement.
