Subject Overview:	Voice 3 continues the development of technical and artistic excellence from year 1 Voice, with extension through exploration in singing lessons of music theatre repertoire and in spoken voice classes through application of technique to text work, which may begin to include dialects. Individual lessons continue, supporting the unique qualities of each student's vocal qualities and giving specific attention to individual problem areas. Repertoire work will expand the student's understanding of the range of approaches required vocally for music theatre voice usage and of technique needed to support a diverse range of material. In both speech and singing the student is expected to begin integrating vocal technique with acting demands to consider character, context, style and story in their vocal choices.
Learning Outcomes:	Upon completion of this subject students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # understand and apply more advanced Music Theatre vocal techniques # demonstrate a developing understanding of the interplay between popular vocal styles and current Music Theatre voice usage; # apply greater creative and artistic vocal technique to material; # interpret selected texts with appropriate spoken voice energy and appropriate to material, style or space # demonstrate increased flexibility, range, clarity and expressiveness in application to spoken voice and language # adapt and develop their self-directed study regime in both spoken and sung voice to support the new demands of the curriculum # demonstrate development in the ability to analyse and address and overcome individual blocks, habits and areas of difficulty.
