Overview:	The Diploma in Languages provides students with the opportunity to gain a Diploma in Arabic language while completing an undergraduate degree at the University of Melbourne. The Arabic Program offers an integrated way of studying Arabic language and aspects of Arab and Islamic culture. Beyond studying the language itself, students also have the opportunity to acquire a significant amount of knowledge about the nature of living, seeing, acting and interacting in the 'Arab way'. With the development of students' language proficiency, there will be a growing emphasis on reflection on, as well as critical awareness and discussion of, issues related to Arabic literature and the realms of history, sociology and religion in the Arab World. Arabic language subjects are organised in a progressive sequence (of units) from Arabic 1 through to Arabic 10. Entry points are determined by the student's background in the language, placement testing, prerequisites, or at the discretion of the Arabic program. Students normally progress through the subjects in consecutive order. Mid-year entry is also possible into subjects with even numbers, subject to appropriate prior experience and approval from the head of the Arabic program.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who complete this diploma will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # gain in-depth knowledge of Arabic language and of Arab culture and society relative to their entry level, acquire effective written and oral communication skills in Arabic, and develop a capacity to combine their knowledge of Arabic language and culture with other disciplines. # gain knowledge of the social and cultural diversity of the Middle East and North Africa, and develop the skills to work with people from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds. # acquire the ability to set goals and manage time and priorities, and work effectively both independently and in groups.
Structure & Available Subjects:	The Diploma consists of a three-year sequence of first-, second- and third-year language study and may add up to one year to the duration of the student's degree course. See the Diploma course structure for details. Common entry points for the Diploma are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Arabic 1 entry point: for students who have very little or no knowledge of Arabic. * Arabic 3 entry point: for students who have lower intermediate level of Arabic. * Arabic 5 entry point: for students who have completed Year 12 VCE Arabic (Second Language) or have an equivalent level of Arabic language. Students will have their appropriate entry point determined by the Arabic Program, based on evidence of prior learning and/or results of a placement test as required.
