Subject Overview:	This subject teaches students to read Latin and covers the material of two semesters. It covers grammatical concepts and paradigms, sentence formation, translation and the reading of simple texts. The aim is for students to acquire the elements of syntax, grammar and vocabulary of Latin, sufficient to begin reading literary and non-literary texts. Some background in Roman cultural and political life will also be covered. Completion of the subject will enable a student to enrol in Intermediate Latin.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who successfully complete this subject will:

	# be able to read and comprehend Latin in previously unseen texts. Completion of the subject will enable a student to enrol in Intermediate Latin. # because of the dependence of many languages (including English) on Latin vocabulary, students will understand the history of their own language and culture, and improve their native language skills.
Assessment:	Written work totalling 8000 words comprising twelve 10-minute class tests 10%, six translation exercises 20%, one 2-hour mid-semester exam 35% (all held during the semester) and a 2-hour final exam 35% (to be held on Friday 23 February 2015). This subject has a minimum hurdle requirement of 75% class attendance. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day; after five working days, no late assessment will be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts:	Classical Latin: An Introductory Course (JC McKeown) Hacket Publishing Company, Inc. Classical Latin: An Introductory Course, Workbook (JC McKeown) Hacket Publishing Company, Inc.
