Subject Overview:	This subject is designed for students who commenced the Latin stream with no prior knowledge of the language and have completed Latin 1, Latin 2, Latin 3, Latin 4 and Latin 5. Students examine the genre of lyric poetry through study of the Odes of Horace. The subject will address the key elements of lyric style, the nature of the first person lyric persona, the key themes of the lyric text, and the involvement of the text with contemporary political and social ideology. In addition, work is undertaken on grammar and syntax to revise, consolidate and extend students' knowledge of the language. Students who successfully complete this subject should be able to read Roman lyric, identify its stylistic features, and analyse its central themes and relationship to conventional Roman culture.

Learning Outcomes:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · be familiar with the style of Roman lyric. · understand the cultural and production contexts of the text. · have consolidated their knowledge of grammar and syntax and extended their vocabulary. · be able to critically analyse the styles and themes of Latin lyric and to communicate that analysis clearly and concisely.
Assessment:	Linguistic analysis, equivalent to 750 words 20% (due during semester in a week selected by the student in consultation with the lecturer), textual analysis presentation, equivalent to 500 words 15% (due in Week 8 of semester), an assessment test equivalent to 1000 words 30% (due at the end of semester) and a 1750-word essay 35% (due in the examination period). This subject has a minimum hurdle requirement of 75% class attendance. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day; after five working days, no late assessment will be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts:	Horace, Odes. Text to be made available. J.Morwood, A Latin Grammar, Oxford University Press, 1999.
