Subject Overview:	Following the focus on advanced oral skills at French 6, students will now develop advanced writing skills. Building on their mastery of résumé and synthèse acquired in previous subjects students will learn how to structure and present more developed essays. This will be done working with the theme, "The culture of the language" in which French is viewed not only as the principal vehicle of French culture; it is also as an object represented in and by that culture. This subject rounds out the study of French by examining traditions that have shaped the understanding of what "French" is for French speakers around the world. The subject is a formal prerequisite for entry into Honours in French.
Learning Outcomes:	At the end of this subject, students will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have gained an appreciation of academic French through the confident use of sophisticated oral and written French at level B2/C1 of the Common European Framework for Languages; # have gained an overview of three specialized fields (19th, 20th, 21st century) in at least one of the three core areas of French literature, linguistics, and cultural (cinema) studies; # have gained a broad understanding of the wider literary or linguistic methods used in the specialist fields of French Studies (eg close reading) as well as of general research and analytical skills ; # be able to reflect on their identity as a bicultural and bilingual person and as a global citizen;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have learned to do self-directed small research projects in the field of French Studies and to locate pertinent research literature in both French and English; # be able to make wide use of learning and research technologies in French and English.
