Subject Overview:	Voice 2 continues the technical work of Voice 1 with the introduction of repertoire in individual voice classes. Spoken voice classes will include the development of a self-directed study plan of regular work-outs to facilitate skills development in key areas such as breath support, range, resonance and articulation and support these with continuing class work in these areas.
Learning Outcomes:	On completing this subject students will be able to: For Singing Voice: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• understand the fundamental physiological foundations of different components of human vocal sound;• apply the aforementioned physiological information directly to their own voice production;• understand the and adapt to the vocal technical requirements of a specific range of music theatre voice sounds;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> display a developing ability to appropriately apply developing technical ability to a range of repertoire. For Spoken Voice: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> demonstrate a developing understanding of voice production from a physically released body; demonstrate a developing ability to speak on full breath support with strong, secure tone; demonstrate the development of flexibility in range; demonstrate the development of clear articulation; devise and practise an individual voice and speech routine on a regular basis.
Assessment:	Continuous: Preparation and participation in individual lessons demonstrating continuous application. 40% Continuous: Preparation and participation in spoken voice classes, demonstrating continuous application. 25% Formal: Performance of a set task in individual voice lesson. Final lesson, week 12. 15% Written: Self-assessment of progress based on a journal of classroom experiences and self-directed study covering all components of voice studies. 500 words. Due week 12. 10% Written: Submission of a work journal of spoken voice self-directed study, including weekly study plan and weekly notes on personal observation of progress and areas of difficulty. 3 Pages. Due week 13. 10% Late submission: Unless an extension has been granted, for essays/assignments submitted after the due date, the mark a student is awarded for their work will reduced by 10% for each day the work is late. Using electronic submission means work may be submitted on any day. Unless an extension has been granted, assignments submitted later than 5 working days (or 1 week if due on a weekend) after the due date will not be marked, and will receive no marks. Hurdle requirements: Students must attend 80% of all scheduled classes and attempt all elements of assessment to be eligible for a pass in this subject.
