Subject Overview:	The subject will examine the skills required for individual composers to develop their craft in interactive music making. Interactive Composition is delivered in two parts: Tutorial and Workshop. Tutorial is taught primarily by a specialist mentor through a mixture of individual and group tutorials. Workshop is taught as a seminar and provides the opportunity for group discussion of issues related to interactive composition and a forum for the workshop of new works. During the course, students will be required to engage in whole group discussion, and to present complete and ongoing interactive compositions.
Learning Outcomes:	On completing this subject students will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • have in-depth knowledge of their specialist discipline;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reach a high level of achievement in artistic practice, problem solving and communication; • be critical and creative thinkers, with an aptitude for continued self-directed learning; • have the capacity to participate fully in collaborative learning and to confront unfamiliar problems.
Assessment:	Mid Semester review including formative evaluation of student progress on individual projects, worth 10% One individual oral interactive composition presentation demonstrating level of engagement with the Interactive Composition 5 learning outcomes within the completed folio. Duration: 20 minutes. End of Semester 20% Individual folio: completion of an interactive composition folio of original material composed during the semester for which the student is being assessed. Folio content: The folio works should have a total duration of approximately 30 minutes and will include examples of composition with and for different media. End of Semester 80% Hurdle requirements Students must attend 80% of all scheduled classes and attempt all elements of assessment to be eligible for a pass in this subject.
