Subject Overview:	This subject is designed for students who commenced the Latin stream with some previous knowledge of Latin (VCE level or equivalent) and have completed Latin 5. Students examine the genre of lyric poetry through study of the Odes of Horace. The subject will address the key elements of lyric style, the nature of the first person lyric persona, the key themes of the lyric text, and the involvement of the text with contemporary political and social ideology. In addition, work is undertaken on grammar and syntax to revise, consolidate and extend students' knowledge of the language. Students who successfully complete this subject should be able to read Roman lyric, identify its stylistic features, and analyse its central themes and relationship to conventional Roman culture.

Learning Outcomes:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # be familiar with the style of Roman lyric; # understand the cultural and production contexts of the text; # have consolidated their knowledge of grammar and syntax and extended their vocabulary; # be able to critically analyse the styles and themes of Latin lyric.
Assessment:	Linguistic analysis, equivalent to 750 words, due during semester in a week selected by the student in consultation with the lecturer (25%); a textual analysis presentation, equivalent to 500 words, due in Week 8 of semester (10%); an assessment test equivalent to 1000 words, due at the end of semester (30%); a 1750-word essay held in the end of semester examination period (35%). Hurdle Requirement: Students are required to attend a minimum of 75% of classes in order to pass this subject. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Note: Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
Prescribed Texts:	Horace, Odes. Text to be made available. J.Morwood, A Latin Grammar, Oxford University Press, 1999.
