Subject Overview:	This module is designed to enable students to understand and articulate research as a means to enrich and deepen their own personal processes and artistry. Discussion of acting and actor training, and their relevant forms of performance- and practice-led research, will help develop frameworks of research inquiries and methods for staging practice-based investigations. The study of research will draw on co-requisite subjects (productions, studio work) as well as in-class activities (seminars, lectures, practical applications).
Learning Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To encourage the development of the independent and autonomous learner/practitioner.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To provide an opportunity for the student to demonstrate the capacity to formulate and communicate evidence-based arguments.</li> <li>• To develop the student's problem solving abilities.</li> <li>• To introduce Performance/Practice as Research methodologies.</li> <li>• To provide an opportunity for the student to critically evaluate professional practice.</li> </ul>
Assessment:	Group student presentation on a topic relevant to current actor training and practices. Mid Semester. 50% Reflective essay (2000 words equivalent). End semester. 50%
