Subject Overview:	This subject comprises the compulsory [AQF] Capstone experience for this course. Drawing on theory, knowledge and skills developed throughout the Master of Education, students will complete an individually negotiated project in which the student undertakes a theoretical study (for example, a substantial critical review of a particular body of literature), a research or workplace project, or an approved relevant educational experience. The Capstone project will culminate with students synthesizing the findings of their work in a written form such as a journal article or report.
Learning Outcomes:	On completion of this subject, students should be able to: # investigate systematically a matter of concern in their workplace; or

	# conduct a constructively critical literature review.
Assessment:	There is one assessment task: A research report of approximately 5000 words, due end of semester (100%). There is one hurdle requirement: A 15 minute oral presentation of the project's results, due as scheduled during the second half of the semester. Attendance at all classes (tutorial/seminars/practical classes/lectures/labs) is obligatory. Failure to attend 80% of classes will normally result in failure in the subject.
