Subject Overview:	The subject will follow the motto of the French Republic and explore the cultural, social and political aspects linked to these concepts. It will build on the skills developed in French 3 for the purpose of résumé and narrative competencies in oral and written form and expand into more complex sentences and verb forms (subjunctive, gerund, present and past participles). Work on discourse structure will continue. The material used will centre on the important events of the 19th century that will see the gradual consolidation of the republican system through a succession of empires, monarchies and republics. Students will explore modern representations in film and other media of these events, and demonstrate their relevance for the understanding of today's French-speaking world. The concepts of "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity" will be explored in relationship to the revolutions of that century, the evolution of the legal system and the development of the French colonial

	empire. Students will undertake small research projects on “key personalities” – significant historical figures and their influence. The study of the documents will be associated with the use of a reference grammar and a French monolingual dictionary to discover semantic, syntactic and lexical information they need for processing texts on these topics.
Learning Outcomes:	On successful completion of this subject, students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have consolidated their skills in French, incorporating reading and writing, speaking and listening comprehension; # show an increased awareness and understanding of French-speaking cultures throughout the world; # have consolidated their ability to write a summary (résumé) of an authentic text in French and have developed their ability to present their work orally in French; # have increased their autonomy in their study of the French language and French-speaking cultures.
Assessment:	Two written and oral comprehension tests due in Weeks 4 and 8 equivalent to 1500 words [30%] A 10-minute oral test in Week 10 equivalent to 500 words [20%] A group project in Weeks 9-12 equivalent to 500 words [20%] A two hour written examination during the examination period (1500 words) [30%] This subject has the following hurdle requirements: Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day and in-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
