Subject Overview:	Students continue intensive revision and further development of the major areas of contemporary Italian language and culture. Through the analysis of language structures with a practical focus, students will extend their linguistic capacities in reading, writing, listening, speaking and describing the Italian language. Students also explore aspects of contemporary

	Italian literature, society and history through a programmatic study of post-war Italy. Students develop a critical capacity enabling them to understand and analyse a variety of text types (film, music, mass media, literature, etc.). Communication skills will also be developed through online and face-to-face collaboration in a range of in- and out-of-class activities.
Learning Outcomes:	On successful completion of this subject, students should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # be able to interpret and analyse a variety of texts and genres, both written and spoken, of a moderate level of complexity; # be able to use appropriate linguistic structures and lexical resources, including specialised terminology relating to specific literary, linguistic and cultural aspects of Italian-speaking communities, to communicate in Italian both in writing and speaking; # have gained an introduction to the core areas of Italian Studies, with specific focus on each through dedicated learning activities; # be able to apply research methods appropriately to task; # be able to demonstrate an appreciation of the diversity of Italian language and culture; # be able to actively compare and contrast linguistic and cultural similarities and differences between Italian language and culture and other languages and cultures; # through a range of tasks and class experiences, be able to apply a variety of learning techniques to further consolidate knowledge, understanding and ability in relation to Italian; # have consolidated and extended linguistic repertoire and vocabulary.
Assessment:	Three online language tests (equivalent to 200 words each) in weeks 5, 8 and 11 [15%] Contemporary Italy mini project (400 words) in week 6 [10%] A small film project (equivalent to 800 words) plus 250 word reflective summary in English in week 9 [20%] Contemporary Italy history project including analytical statement (equivalent to 1200 words) in week 11 [30%] A 1 hour final exam (equivalent to 1000 words) during the examination period [25%] This subject has the following hurdle requirements: Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day and in-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
