Subject Overview:	This subject is designed for students who have completed Japanese 7 and can recognise around 800 kanji characters, or those who have similar experience. It will enhance students' academic literacy skills to conduct in-depth research related to Japan/Japanese. Students will establish advanced Japanese literacy and background knowledge in order to engage in international issues surrounding Japan. Students will develop understanding of various genres through reading, and discussing issues in modern Japanese society. Students will engage in a small scale research project on one of the chosen topics by further investigating the issue and by writing an opinion piece and presenting it to the class. Through the research project they will develop their research skills and will equip themselves with intercultural literacy by analysing issues from various perspectives and participating in group discussions. Additionally, students will also develop agency and critical perspective as a Japanese language user participating in the global community.
Learning Outcomes:	On successful completion of this subject, students should:

	acquire in-depth knowledge of different aspects of the Japanese society and culture, particularly about the changes due to globalisation; develop sensitivity to implied meanings from given texts, and be able to relate them with a certain choice of words, sentence structure and cohesive discourse; communicate and exchange their views in Japanese with other students of linguistically and culturally diverse backgrounds; conduct group research activities using emerging technologies; engage in meaningful discourse with students in Japan; write an opinion piece based on findings of group project work.
Assessment:	Written work in Japanese, 600 words due throughout semester (15%) An oral assessments, 400 words due mid-semester (10%) A cultural discovery project, 600 words due towards the end of semester (15%) An critical discussion, 400 words due at the end of semester (10%) A 2 hour written examination due during examination period (50%) Hurdle requirement: Class attendance is required for this subject; if you do not attend a minimum of 80% of classes without an approved exemption you will not be eligible for a pass in this subject.
