Subject Overview:	This subject provides participants with an opportunity for an in-depth practical study of contemporary a cappella singing techniques. Classes focus on developing a personal sound and an understanding of the placement of the voice in an ensemble context, as well as the development of improvisation skills and techniques relevant to the repertoire covered. The styles range from contemporary gospel, r&b, soul, free form experimental and Afro-American chants as well as other related vocal styles.
Learning Outcomes:	On completing this subject students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • perform material from a variety of genres in an ensemble setting; • perform as a soloist and/or leader of an ensemble;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • exhibit an understanding of contemporary choral singing techniques; • identify and perform selected songs from a wide range of sources; • take part in ensemble settings which incorporate up to four part harmony arrangements; • incorporate improvisation techniques leading to real time composition.
Assessment:	Classroom participation (via weekly performance and discussion) - Weeks 1 to 12 (40%) Group Performance - Week 12 (30%) Students must select three tunes from the set list. The student must perform the selected tunes in unison (with the recording) from beginning to end, including adlibs and improvisations to the best of the student's ability. Particular attention to phrasing, consonants, tone and dynamics must be adhered to. (Equivalent 1,600 words) - During the assessment period (30%) HURDLE REQUIREMENTS: Students must attend 80% of all scheduled classes and attempt all elements of assessment to be eligible for a pass in this subject. LATE SUBMISSIONS: Unless an extension has been granted, for essays/assignments submitted after the due date, the mark a student is awarded for their work will be reduced by 10% for each day the work is late. Using electronic submission means work may be submitted on any day. Unless an extension has been granted, assignments submitted later than 5 working days (or 1 week if due on a weekend) after the due date will not be marked, and will receive no marks.
