Subject Overview:	An extension of Acting for Opera Performance 1, Acting for Opera Performance 2 explores in greater depth the holistic performance elements required by professional opera singers. Combining text analysis and movement principles, this subject is designed to further build the skills of dramatic interpretation and individual expression required for professional opera performance. Students are encouraged to integrate imagination and physical skills with their vocal skills to develop characters and interpret text.
Learning Outcomes:	On completion of the subject, student will have expanded and built upon specific skills necessary for high caliber, theatrical characterization in operatic performance through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Developing an in-depth appreciation of the significance of text in the operatic art-form # Application of extensive kinesthetic awareness exercises and movement skills (as opposed to vocal) to produce honest, theatrical characterization of professional quality # Embarking upon detailed analysis and discussion of scenes using selected existing play-scripts # Developing the capacity for autonomous analysis and interpretation of dramatic context, character and text/script, and to apply this knowledge to operatic performance of professional quality # Developing the extensive collaborative skills necessary for the ensemble nature of the art-form in the professional world

Assessment:	1-2 hour performance assessment of movement, character, text and scene analysis (50%) due at the end of the teaching period. Ongoing assessment of the processes required for characterization and performance development (50%) through out each workshop session. 100% attendance and active collaboration is expected. Less than 80% attendance will result in a fail.
