Subject Overview:	This subject asks students to engage with the thought of some of the great Asian philosophers and their commentators, understanding them, and developing their own ideas in response. The topics discussed will involve some of the following: metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, political philosophy, and history of philosophy, within the Asian traditions. On completion of the subject, students should have developed a sound understanding of the particular topic for that year, including a grasp of any primary texts used (in translation), and some of the secondary literature on these. They should be able to explain and evaluate the ideas concerned, and to articulate their own positions on the matters covered.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who successfully complete this subject will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # interpret primary textual material; # explain the ideas involved clearly in their own terms; # evaluate the ideas involved; # develop and defend their own ideas on the topics concerned.
Assessment:	A 5000-word research essay, due approximately 1 month after the end of teaching (100%) Hurdle Requirement: Students are required to attend a minimum of 75% of classes in order to pass this subject. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Note: Regular participation in class is required. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 2% per working day. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
Prescribed Texts:	To be advised by the subject coordinator.

Recommended Texts:	Asian philosophical traditions are rich and varied:- Hindu, Buddhist (Indian and Chinese), Confucian, Daoist. There is no appropriate portmanteau book at this level. Particular texts will be set depending on the topic or topics covered that year.
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
