Subject Overview:	This elective offers students the opportunity to read and discuss the primary texts of key social theorists. In addition to developing an understanding of the work of foundational scholars, such as Marx, Freud, and Foucault, we will also examine questions of interpretation. Through analysing contemporary readings of these influential thinkers we will explore how genealogies of ideas are enlivened, critiqued, misread, and transformed in social theory.
Learning Outcomes:	On successful completion of this subject, students should have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># enhanced knowledge of the topic or area of scholarship taught in the module;</li> <li># an ability to reflect upon their own research work in relation to the content of the module; and</li> <li># enhanced engagement with leading-edge research in Arts today.</li> </ul>
Assessment:	1. One 500-word essay proposal (20%), due in Week 7 of semester. 2. One 2,000-word essay (80%), due in the examination period. Hurdle Requirements: Students are required to attend a minimum of 80% of classes in order to pass this subject.
